Matt Strojnowski's practice is concentrated in the area of insurance coverage and good-faith claims handling. Matt is admitted to practice in all State Courts of Florida and Minnesota and the United States District Courts for the Middle, Northern, and Southern Districts of Florida. Matt represents insurance carriers in coverage disputes arising under comprehensive general liability, commercial automobile, and personal automobile liability policies in which coverage issues arise related to serious bodily injury and property damage claims. Matt carefully analyzes his clients' insurance policies and aggressively advocates their coverage position seeking the most favorable and efficient results possible. Matt's representation also includes advice on good-faith claims handling and assistance in negotiating settlements in multi-claimant situations.

Prior to joining Stoler Russell Keener Verona, Matt worked for a plaintiff law firm where he gained broad experience in disability law, employment law, and personal injury law. Matt received his J.D., cum laude, from Stetson University College of Law and his B.S. from the University of Tampa.
